1. In mid-April 1953, Trudovaks and civilian laborers were observed on the northwestern outskirts of Kharmanlii excavating slit trenches and preparing underground defense works on the hills overlooking the town. Bricks were being unloaded in the vicinity of the construction sites and were being carried into the dug-outs which were presumably about to be brick-lined.
2. A small wireless station was observed on one of the hills overlooking the town of Kharmanlii.
